

PERSONAL.

McClinton, of Paris, is at the hotel.

H. Holland is very ill indeed in the city.

G. Childs of Dallas called on the Gazette yesterday.

Mrs. P. S. Bridges of Sherman is in the city.

B. B. Groome of the Panhandle is in the city.

B. Beckner and wife, of Paris, are in the city, at the El Paso.

J. M. Knight honored the Gazette office with his presence.

R. Harkley of Alexander has been in the city for several days.

R. Elliott one of Tarrant's best citizens is in the city on business.

P. Finley ex-county clerk of Tarrant county was in the city yesterday.

Kate Norton of Austin was one of the visiting ladies who attended the ball.

A. M. Quayle and W. R. Harkley of Grapevine paid the Gazette a visit yesterday.

T. Lucas from Georgetown, Ky., is in the city, looking after the interest of thoroughbred stock.

D. Dills, one of the editors of the Sherman Courier, paid the Gazette a pleasant visit yesterday.

W. E. Brown, J. B. Slaughter and H. E. Eger, all prominent and liberal men, paid the Gazette office a visit yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Melton, and Miss Gerald of Waco made a call on the Gazette yesterday.

W. T. Adams, manager for the interest of the south for Williamson cotton, was in the city yesterday, and called on the Gazette.

L. C. Slaughter of Dallas paid the Gazette a visit yesterday evening. He has been a zealous and efficient worker in the stockmen's convention.

J. M. Onins president of the Texas Female College at Sherman, has been in the city several days, and made the Gazette a pleasant call yesterday night.

Shelley had several fair daughters at the ball and banquet, namely: Ida Turner, Eva Turner and Patterson; Mesdames Z. Adon, J. W. Wilson and G. Leach.

Mayor Brown will pay a visit to Waco on the 25th or 26th of this month. Mr. Brown is superintendent of the mining syndicate composed of Waco capitalists, and he will probably have good news for his constituents.

G. M. Turner who has been in service of Dashwood & King for some time leaves this morning for his home in Russellville Arkansas. Turner has made many friends during his stay, who part with him with regret. He will say a good word for this live Texas city where he has spent many pleasant days. Succumb him.

In Memoriam.

At his residence near Grapevine, Feb. 20, pneumonia, I. P. S. Dunn, aged 59 years and eleven months.

Chronicle the death of a friend, one whom we loved is a sad duty; while we mourn their demise and their loss to family and friends, we are in humble submission to the will of Him who giveth and taketh.

I. P. S. Dunn was born in Lawrence county, Alabama, April 29, 1833. In 1853, his parents moved to Harrison county, Texas, where he grew to man's estate. He died at Grapevine in December, 1892, where he passed the remainder of his life.

On February 10th, 1858, he was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss P. Van Zant, with whom a happy and three sons still survive.

He professed religion in 1854—being fifty-one years of age—was baptized by Rev. A. J. Rutherford and joined the Missionary Baptist Church of Harrison county, Texas. The same year he was made a Mason by Constance A. E. and A. M., of Harrison county, Texas.

As a citizen he was ever counted one of our foremost and public spirited, and well known both at home and abroad. In all things conducive to social, moral and intellectual betterment of the community, Mr. Dunn never responded to his full ability.

As a military soldier, his comrades have accounted him true and brave. In 1862 he enlisted under Captain Berry's company, 9th Texas cavalry, and served to the close of the war.

As a soldier of the cross, he was a man of undoubted sincerity. He was one of the most charitable men we knew. At home and in his every life was to be found his best qualities. He died as he lived in the hope of glorious immortality.

He was buried with Masonic honors, at a called meeting of the Grapevine Lodge the following resolutions and resolutions were passed in respect to his memory.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the family of the deceased brother, and that the Grapevine News and Fort Worth Gazette be requested to publish the same.

A. M. QUAYLE,
L. J. LARIMER,
Committee.

A Bold Robbery.

Robt. L. Briggs, esq., a pleasant gentleman representing the house of H. T. & Co., Philadelphia, was in the city yesterday and paid the GAZETTE an agreeable visit. Mr. Briggs had quite an experience in Dallas of a most unpleasant nature. Coming from Waco to Dallas his trunk of samples, together with a new suit of leather traveling trunk, were put off on the platform. During the rush accompanying the arrival of the train, some person or persons unknown pulled the leather trunk under the platform, where the trunk was out and the entire contents saved a test. The trunk was not discovered until the next day, when the road sent word to Mr. Briggs, who made an inventory of the contents of the trunk and placed its value at $200, although it was worth much more.

The case was put in the hands of Morgan & Gibbs, who will recover the amount due Mr. Briggs' loss.

The officers at Dallas are on the alert, and hope to catch the offenders.

IN BRIEF.

Don't forget "Merry War" to-night. Buy your tickets early for the "Merry War" to-night.

A rich treat is in store for those who visit the Deutscher Verein Hall to-night.

Ladies reception at skating rink to-night. Music by band. Admission 25 cents. Ladies' skates free.

Quite a number of the cattlemen and other visitors to our city during the convention were still in the city last night.

Late Holt on yesterday had the remains of his brother, Payne Holt, killed out west, removed to Dido, near the old homestead.

Mr. A. M. Britton deserves special credit for much of the success of the entertainment given to the stockmen. As chairman of the committee of arrangements, he did his whole duty.

A fine thread cambie handkerchief with edge of valenciennes insertion and lace was lost near the entrance of Godwin's Hall, Thursday evening. The finder will please leave at the Gazette office.

The late convention has shown the citizens of Fort Worth the great and urgent need of an opera-house. With a few thousand dollars more stock taken, the company will be enabled to go on with the building.

Two men were arrested yesterday on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of the freight cars of the Missouri Pacific not long since. They were trying to sell a caddy of tobacco at the time of the arrest.

In the list of visitors from sister cities, who attended the ball and banquet, Waco was inadvertently omitted. The central city was represented by Miss Florence Gerald, one of the brightest ornaments of its social circles.

At two o'clock this afternoon bids will be opened by the council for the construction of a sewer and for supplying drain pipes. The Fort Worth Driving Park Association also opens bids to-day for grading track and building fences and grand-stands.

Turner & McClure having bought the A. A. Nicholson stock of groceries opposite the postoffice, will continue the business at the same stand. They are now moving their entire stock up from their recent location and will have everything in ship-shape soon.

Yesterday work was resumed on the Taylor street railway line, the track being laid across the square on Rusk street, thence down Belknap street and when work stopped last night the track had reached the jail. It will now require but a few days to complete the line.

Among the delegation from Sherman to the stockmen's ball and banquet, were Messrs. Mammie Brown, Emma Brown, Katie Pittman, Nellie Pittman, Ida Marsh, Laura Epstein, Hattie Phillips, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Dorchester, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. M. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Will Southern, Albert Richards, Sid Wilson, Sandy Haley and Charley Chidman.

"The Merry War."

This beautiful new opera of Strauss' was presented by Haverly's English Opera company last night in a most satisfactory manner. The music of the opera is brilliant and taking, and the plot is charmingly absurd and the dialogue most enlightening.

Of the company, Miss Dora Wiley, as "Violetta," was of course the leading attraction; her singing was excellent and her acting charming. Richard Golden, as the gossipping "Marquis," was a wonderful success in his part. Mr. Charles Pyke's "Umberto" was most acceptable throughout. Miss Richardson, as "Elsa," captivated the audience by her bright and coquettish ways and her fine voice. The rest of the cast were equally well taken. Of the chorus, particular mention is required. It was strong, fresh and well drilled, and in the marching and all details it was almost perfect. The turning of the party was excellent, and everything about it was first-class.

Ask for Jersey Lilly Complexion Powder, 25 cents. Best. For sale by T. W. Powell, E. M. Wells, G. H. Dashwood and L. N. Brunswig, Fort Worth.

To Cattlemen.

Larimer & Wheeler have their store next to the El Paso Hotel, where visitors to the city, and others, will find the best of cigars, tobaccos and a fine line of merchandise goods. Perique and Lone Jack always in stock. The Metropolitan and genuine imported cigars, as well as the best nickel cigar, are in stock. All stockmen will be made welcome.

The latest styles of fine wall paper at G. K. paint shop. Crinoid ground with gilt pattern embossed; gold ground in imitation of green-grained silk; gold ground with design in cardinal and drab; cardinal ground with gold and chocolate figures.

Hand Him Around.

The hottest newspaper man at present in Texas is John J. Hogan, of the Houston Post. Frank Swain, who some weeks ago canvassed the cities and towns in north Texas for the special edition of the Post of March 1st, has left the paper in bad odor, he (Swain) making no returns whatever to the managers of the Post of the work done by himself. Mr. Hogan has found that Swain has made contracts all over the state at unauthorized rates, collecting the cash therefor which was wholly unwarranted, and in fact swindling the paper and the business men with whom he had dealings. Hogan is doing all in his power to fill contracts made by Swain although the same are total loss to his paper. The Post will suffer financially, but expresses the wish that all persons who have made contracts with said Swain should make contracts with writing to the Houston Post, who will try to see that Swain is dealt with accordingly. Mr. Hogan has been placed in a very embarrassing position, as he has no means of finding out what contracts Swain has made, except by personal inquiry.

Reckless Shooting.

At one o'clock this morning C. C. Cannon of Gainesville went into the Horse Head saloon on Main street and deliberately fired his pistol through the floor of the room, narrowly missing a number of men who were seated in C. B. Dixon's rooms. Cannon was disarmed. Thursday night he discharged his pistol in the same saloon making a hole in the wall. When the reporter left Cannon was clamoring to have his pistol returned to him, which very properly the officers refused to do. It is a miracle that no one was killed.

The "Merry War" was given at the opera-house last evening before a large and delighted audience with charming effect. The vocal superiority of Haverly's Opera Company, the superb costumes, the drills, marches and minor details are acknowledged by all who witnessed them last night as unequalled in vigor, freshness and artistic skill. It was in all one of the finest performances given this season in the opera-house. Miss Dora Wiley as "Violetta" exhibited a skill, grace and sweetness in voice and movement thoroughly charming, and which called forth the most hearty applause. "Elsie" brought forth numerous plaudits from the appreciative audience. Mr. Richard Golden, as the "Marquis," proved himself to be a fine comedian, and an excellent vocalist. "Balthazar" and "Spinola" were excellently rendered, and the entire entertainment passed on without flaw of any kind. —Toledo Blade.
